We received the gifts of the Holy Spirit in Baptism and they are sealed and strengthened in us in Confirmation. CCC (1830) states that these gifts “sustain our moral life and make us docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit.”

Thank you so much!
 Dear Volunteers, Teachers, Catechists, Hospitality Ladies, Liturgical Team Members for making such wonderful liturgies celebrations last Sunday.

The Holy Spirit gives us an understanding of God's Word (1 Cor 2). The Acts explain to us what some define as glossolalia (Acts 2,1-4) which happened on the Day of Pentecost when the sound of a mighty rushing wind came accompanied by divided tongues of fire that rested on each of the disciples who were gathered together. “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance” (Acts 2,4). Xenolalia is when a person speaks in a language unknown to him. The Greek word means “foreign-speaking.”
